When you are using the stable game client, you have to mount your project folder in C:\Users\YourUserName\Documents\ConquerOnline5165\Server You must save the mounted folder from the error message and create a shortcut on your Desktop. If you can't find the mounted folder, you can browse your disk using Windows Explorer or another graphical file management software. After that, you must right click on the shortcut and select the Open tab. The mounted folder with a name that starts with "Server" will be displayed. Double click on it and copy the content of the mounted folder to your game 648931e174
