

About Laguiole French Knives

Explore the enduring artistry of Laguiole knives, rooted in history since 1828 when Mr. Moulin, a masterful cutler from Laguiole, fashioned the inaugural masterpiece. Meticulously handcrafted in Thiers and the village, these knives epitomize a legacy that spans generations. Revel in the authenticity and precision inherent in every Laguiole knife, a testament to our unwavering commitment to the craft.

Each Laguiole knife unveils a unique blend of tradition and contemporary craftsmanship. With roots in the picturesque village of Laguiole and the renowned center of Thiers, our knives stand as symbols of timeless artistry. Delve into the intricate details of these blades, where each curve and contour is shaped through 170 manual operations by our skilled craftsmen.

The authenticity of Laguiole knives lies in the hands of our expert artisans, who painstakingly shape, refine, and perfect each knife. This meticulous process ensures that every Laguiole knife carries not just a blade but a narrative—a story of tradition, precision, and dedication to craftsmanship. Embrace the legacy of Laguiole knives, where artistry meets functionality in blades that transcend time.